Job Description

POSITION DESCRIPTION

This position functions almost as a college RA would in a dorm. The Staff Leads (one male and one female) are responsible for making sure the staff are taken care of emotionally, physically and spiritually. Most of your time in this position will be devoted to meeting with staff, filling in for staff (in order to give them a break), and occasionally leading devotions. This position is ideal for someone interested in working in pastoral, church ministries, or counseling.

ESSENTIAL RESPONSIBILITIES/FUNCTIONS

Responsibilities include but are not limited to:

- Planning weekly staff events/parties designed to encourage the staff and give them a break from the busyness of camp.
- Meeting one-on-one with the staff on a weekly / daily basis.
- Planning occasional devotionals and bible studies with the staff
- Being the first line of defense for the staff when they need to talk about an issue, when they desperately need a break or when they get sick.
- Taking staff in to Yakima in the event they need to see a doctor during camp or go to the hospital for any reason.
- Spending daily time in prayer for and with the staff.
- Helping the Program Team assess the needs of the staff on a day to day basis
- Helping counselors resolve issues that arise in their cabins

PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS

- Previous experience working with young adults.
- Strong communication skills
- Ability to adjust on the fly to changing dynamics (schedule changes, weather, sickness, attitude problems, etc.)

KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS, AND ABILITIES

- It is strongly recommended that the Staff Leads are Lifeguard certified and Ropes Course Certified (or be willing to participate in the lifeguard and ropes course training offered in May).
- Theological background and / or previous experience leading Bible studies and devotionals. The ideal candidate would be someone majoring in biblical studies or psychology.
- Experience with mentoring.
- Junior or Senior in college (or older)
- Possess strong leadership skills
- Creativity (someone who enjoys planning and coordinating events)
- Ability to work with staff from a variety of backgrounds, ages, and maturity levels
- Emotional stability

ADDITIONAL NOTES

Ghormley Summer Staff are expected to follow all applicable staff policies, such as the employee dress code, cell phone policy, and community living expectations.

Essentially, this position exists to encourage the rest of our staff to be able to keep serving wholeheartedly. Strong leadership skills are needed to be successful in this position, as you will have many things thrown at you and other staff will constantly be looking to you for guidance. It may sound like an easier position, but keep in mind that this role carries a lot of emotional weight. It is important that the individual in this role can physically, emotionally, and spiritually carry the staff.

When hired to work as a Ghormley Summer Staff team member, you can expect to do at least a little of the following things on a fairly regular basis:

- Dishes: Our Summer Staff and weekly volunteers both regularly do dishes
- End of the Week Clean Up: Once the kids go home, camp must be cleaned to be ready for the next camp.
- Projects: When we have rental groups use our camp at various points during the summer, you will be asked to assist in some work projects. Projects the Summer Staff help us with go a long way towards making our camp more beautiful and safe for the people year round.

SUMMER STAFF SPIRITUAL EXPECTATIONS

In order to foster a Christ-centered community and healthy spiritual environment we ask that all staff adhere to these basic spiritual expectations. We are not asking for perfection but rather a heart and soul that is longing to be made into the image of our creator (Col. 3):

1. Love (1 John 3:18)
2. Above Reproach (Eph. 4:22-24)
3. Growth (2 Peter 3:18)
4. Service / Humility (Mark 10:45)
5. Encouragement (1 Thes.5:10-11)

Please note: It is important to note that those applying for leadership roles must have a strong spiritual background and previous leadership experience. You are a fundamental part of guiding the Summer Staff team and therefore you will be evaluated to such a standard. References will be asked to fill out a form and will be followed up by phone. You will not be considered for this position until they all check out.
